Pet Info:

Is there a specific pet or type of pet/age/sex that you are interested in fostering:

Who will be the primary caregiver for this foster pet?

What provision will be made for the foster pet when you are not at home?

What provisions will be made for the foster pet when you are on vacation?

If you become injured, who will care for the foster pet?

If a dog has behavioral issues, are you be willing to work with our trainer?

Most of our dogs available for foster or adoption have undergone temperament evaluations at the shelters, and some have lived with foster families prior to their adoption. While in foster care, we begin training and work to resolve any behavioral obstacles before adoption. Generally, we are only able to give you the dog's history from the time it enters our program. Are you able and willing to continue working on these challenges with us to ensure that your foster dog is a respectable canine companion and family member?

If you are fostering a cat, will you ensure that they remain an indoor cat?
